IRELAND.

Dublin, Jan. 22.

Y Letters from the North we are aſſured, that the great Freſh Water Lake, call'd Lough Neagh, is entirely frozen over, and the Ice ſo very hard that ſeveral Perſons walk'd directly acroſs the Lough laſt Thurſday from Montjoy-Caſtle, and other Places in the County of Tyrone, to the Market of Antrim, which is upwards of twenty Miles, and returned home next Morning on the Ice.

Laſt Week a great Number of People carrying a Corſe over a Lough, on the Borders of the County of Galway and Mayo, near a Place call'd Con, the Ice broke and they were all loſt, in the Sight of many Horſemen who rid round about.

Yeſterday the Lord Viſcount Mountjoy, Lord Tullamore, Sir Thomas Pendergaſt, Ald. Pearſon, Ald. Aldrich, Mr. Coote, Dr. Wynne, and Dr. Owen, went about this City to collect Money for the Relief of ſuch poor Tradeſmen as are diſabled from working by the Rigour of the Seaſon.

The Right Hon. William Conolly, Eſq; has ordered his Agent to diſtribute to the Value of 130 l. in Corn, Meal, &c. among his poor Tenants, during the Extremity of the Weather.

We hear there was 200 l. collected in St. Mary's Pariſh.

Saturday the Preſs began again in our River, which was ſo hotly purſu'd that not one was left who could be found on board any Ships in the Harbour: Five Colliers juſt come in were entirely ſtript of their Hands, the Maſter and a Boy only excepted in each Ship.

The Week before laſt his Grace the Lord Primate ſent Money to the Miniſters of ſeveral Pariſhes in this City, to buy Coals, Meal, and other Neceſſaries, to be diſtributed amongſt the Poor.

We hear that a Special Commiſſion of Oyer and Terminer will ſpeedily be iſſued for trying the ſeveral Perſons now in Naas Gaol, for burning the Quakers Meeting-houſe, at Timahoe in the County of Kildare.

We alſo hear that Anderſon Saunders, Eſq; is elected Member of Parliament for Enniſcorthy, in the Room of Lieut. Col. Berry, deceas'd.

COUNTRY NEWS.

Newcaſtle, Jan. 26. The Froſt continues here as ſevere as ever; and we hear that ſome of the Fire Engines in the Neighbourhood are froze up, and others are with great Difficulty kept going: That the Sharpneſs of the Air in ſome of the Coal-pits is not to be bore by the Workmen without a Fire at the Bottom: That an Accident lately happen'd by one of theſe Fires, at Tanfield Colliery near this Place; the Circumſtances of which were, that the Fire being ordered to be put out by ſome Boys after the Workmen had left Work, they ſpread it abroad carelefsly (and as it happen'd) amongſt ſome Straw, which immediately took Fire; the Flame of which inſtantly catch'd hold of two Casks of Oil, ſtanding very near the Place, which ſet Fire to the Coal, burnt with ſo much Violence, and rarified the Air to ſuch a Degree, that by a plentiful Supply of freſh Air from 14 adjacent Pits, that Pit was changed into a moſt terrible bellowing Vulcano, thundering out Eruptions of hot Cynders of conſiderable Weight into the open Air, to an incredible Height and Diſtance. This Accident happen'd about two o' Clock on Friday the 12th Inſtant, and continued increaſing for about ſeven Hours; and at nine o' Clock the Pits were all order'd to be cover'd cloſe at the Top, which excluded the external Air, and happily extinguiſhed the Flames; tho' we hear the Fire is not yet out. Several who attempted to put a Stop to this Fire, narrowly eſcaped with their Lives.

Extract of a Letter from Hereford, Jan. 26.

'As other Counties ſend Accounts of their extenſive Charities in this ſevere Seaſon, we think the People of this juſtly deſerve publick Praiſe for their generous Contributions upon the ſame Account.—'Velters Cornewall, Eſq; who is always mindful of 'of his Countrymen, however diſtant from them, began this Work of Charity, by ſending ten Pounds 'from London to be diſtributed amongſt the Poor 'Inhabitants of this City.—— The Mayor and Corporation order'd twenty Pounds as a further Relief 'to their diſtreſſed Brethren.—— Twenty Pounds 'more were ſent by an unknown Hand.——— The 'Mayor went alſo with the Miniſters and Churchwardens of the ſeveral Pariſhes, and collected forty 'Pounds more for this truly charitable Deſign.'

Glouceſter, Jan. 26. Laſt Week the Hon. John Selwyn, Eſq; one of our worthy Repreſentatives in Parliament, ſent 100 l. to be diſtributed among the poor Inhabitants of this City. There is alſo a weekly Subſcription on foot (which we hope will be compleated) for their further Support during this rigourous Seaſon.—— And, bleſſed be God, we hear, that both the Hearts and Purſes of People in general are open to the Relief of the Neceſſitous at this Time; of which we have a laudable Inſtance from the Pariſh of Melkſham, a Cloathing Town in Wilts, where 100 l. was laſt Week collected for this good Purpoſe.

Saliſbury, Jan. 28. Since our Collection for the Poor of this City, which amounted to 150 l. and which has been diſtributed amongſt the poor Inhabitants; Peter Bathurſt, Eſq; one of our worthy Repreſentatives, has been pleaſed to give for the Relief of the ſame 50 Guineas; Sir Jacob Bouverie, 50 l. Lord Biſhop of Sarum, 30 l. Likewiſe a Legacy of Lord Windſor's, by Will, of 50 l beſides ſeveral other private Charities to the amount of above 20 l. So that more than 900 poor Families will be relieved by the aforeſaid charitable Contributions.
